Enter a world of wonder, and turn your home into a fairy tale - a dream. One of a beautiful wedding, where the walls glimmer as people move. Where a mother so eloquently gives her daughter advice before her big day and fills the room with joy. Dressed in white, it's time to dance under the starry midnight sky, one that highlights every perfection underneath. The reality is that now with walls covered in diamonds, you'll fade into that dream over and over again.

The place where your senses are exposed and your heart only falls in love. Where the art, the paint and the craft is timeless. Where the sound of violins resonates as you float through beauty on a gondola. Where the aged stone of the remaining empire is still standing proud. Where the aroma of the freshest ingredients fills the room as a homemade meal is cooked.

We understand. So bring Italy home with walls that capture every moment in texture and colour.

COLOUR MIRAGE

Perform, for the entire world's a stage.

Unique colour motion finish

Let your walls invite you into a fantasy of colour. A magical place where the stage is constantly changing. Pick your background, invite your actors and let your home be an open theatre.

With walls that shimmer shades of Ruby and Sapphire, the colours of your home will look different from every angle and at every moment of the day. So open the curtains and let the show begin.
